

---

The literature indicates the strict use of only western-centered ideas and perspectives. Exclusion of non-western knowledge is an inherent part of the education system that exists today.

---

For this study, semi-structured interviews will be used to explore the experience of BIPOC students in the education system.

---