B. SES 403: Physical & Health Education for Elementary Teachers

Representatives: Ginny Huang/Nancy Sileo

It is the request of the undergraduate Elementary Education Program that the content of EDEL 303 Health Education housed in STE be incorporated into SES 403, which is 1 credit hour course in the Elementary Education program by the College of Natural and Health Sciences and the School of Sport and Exercise Science. The content of the two courses has substantial overlap. The existing Health Education course (EDEL 303) has units in physical activity and schoolwide health promotion (i.e., coordinated school health). These topics are both addressed in the current curriculum of SES 403 as well. The state also recently combined the K-12 physical education and health standards, therefore there is a natural overlap between the two content areas at the state level.

Following discussion Wendy Adams moved to table the curriculum and return to Sport & Exercise Sciences with requested revisions:

Course Form: Fall 2015 needs to be changed to Fall 2016.

SES 403 Syllabus - UNC University Policies need to be incorporated into the syllabus: <http://www.unco.edu/cebs/faculty/pec.html>.

Objectives need to align with the InTASC, CAEP, and Colorado Teacher standards, as indicated in the course syllabus guidelines:
