New Business

- x Policy for Purging Courses from the Catalog
 - f The committee reviewed proposed policy language for inclusion in both the UG and GR catalogs.
 - f Last year with administrative support from the Provost's Office, courses not offered/delivered in six years were identified, and communication was sent to units regarding the purge
 - f Departments are asked for a written justification for courses not to be retained.
 - f It is misleading to students to publish something that is not offered at all
 - f The Registrar's Office will carry out the process like last year, per administrative directive.
 - f RO would like to see catalog language approved for the process; March 1 is the catalog deadline for narrative policies
 - f Toewe will send to Codification for their review before bringing to Senate.
