

President (Feinstein) – The BOT retreat is on September 24th; topics will include Salary Equity’s compensation investment plan, the osteopathic medical school exploration, and enrollment. There was good turnout for UNC at the football game against CU. The State of the University Address is tomorrow; a reception will be held afterward.

Provost (Vollendorf) – We are examining our academic portfolio. Deans will launch conversations with chairs and directors regarding enrollment, curriculum, etc. We have work to do in transferability, how we use Extended Campus, how we can adjust to student needs, and how to respond to changes in enrollment. We need dialog
