

LAC Learning Outcomes: International Studies

Note that competencies are general statements of knowledge, skills, and behaviors while outcomes are specific statements about skills students can demonstrate in a measurable way.

The left column summarizes information about the category and its requirements. This data is for reference purposes and is not included on the syllabus.

The right column contains the competencies and outcomes that are required on the syllabus.

International Studies

NOTE International Studies is a designation specific to UNC; it is not part of the state mandated GT Pathways curriculum. Courses seeking the International Studies [IS] designation must also belong to one of the Arts & Humanities, History, or Social & Behavioral Sciences categories. Be sure to incorporate all requirements of the respective additional designation in the syllabus; please consult the corresponding learning outcomes and syllabus template document.
