

LAC Learning Outcomes U.S. Multicultural Studies

Note that competencies are general statements of knowledge, skills, and behaviors outcomes are specific to the syllabus (i 12 36)

U.S. Multicultural Studies NOTE: U.S. Multicultural Studies is a designation specific to UNC. It is not part of the state mandated GT Pathways curriculum. Courses seeking the U.S. Multicultural Studies [MS] designation must also belong to one of the Arts & Humanities, History or Social & Behavioral Sciences categories. Be sure to incorporate all requirements of the respective additional designation in the syllabus; please consult the corresponding learning outcomes and syllabus template document.

U.S. Multicultural Studies U.S. Multicultural Studies Competency:

LAC attribute: U.S. Multicultural Studies (LAMS) As part of a Liberal Arts Curriculum, the U.S. Multicultural Studies (MS) competency refers

Note: At least four of the seven SLOs are required for courses with the MS designation.

No GTP requirements for this designation

6. Identify, analyze and apply strategies for disrupting and dismantling systems that perpetuate oppression, privilege, and marginalization in order to promote equity and increase access and opportunity for traditionally excluded communities.